

Introduction

- «Law of the European Union: a textbook for master students» is one of the main outputs of the InterEuLawEast Project.
- Publishing of the textbook is an assignment for the Voronezh State University.

Authors

Editorial Board:

- Prof. Adel Abdullin (Kazan Federal University)
- Prof. Pavel Biriukov (Voronezh State University)
- Prof. Roman Grynyuk (Donetsk National University)
- Prof. Sergei Marochkin (Tyumen State University)
- Prof. Mykola Pashkovskyi (National University Odessa Law Academy)
- Prof. Viacheslav Tuliakov (National University Odessa Law Academy)

- Collective of authors — scientists of all partner-universities from Russia and Ukraine.
- Fruitful work and cooperation among colleagues within the InterEuLawEast consortium under overall guidance and editorship of Prof. Pavel Biriukov and Prof. Viacheslav Tuliakov.

Contents

Contents of the textbook was agreed by the whole consortium at the Project coordination meeting in Riga on 30/03/2015 :

- Fundamentals of the EU
- Introduction to the EU law
- EU's institutional structure
- EU Citizenship (human dimension of the EU)
- Four market freedoms
- EU Company Law
- EU Competition Law

- Contents of the textbook cover the big part of contents of teaching disciplines of the International and European Law Master Program, developed within the InterEuLawEast Project.
- The textbook should be used both within and outside of the Master Program

Review

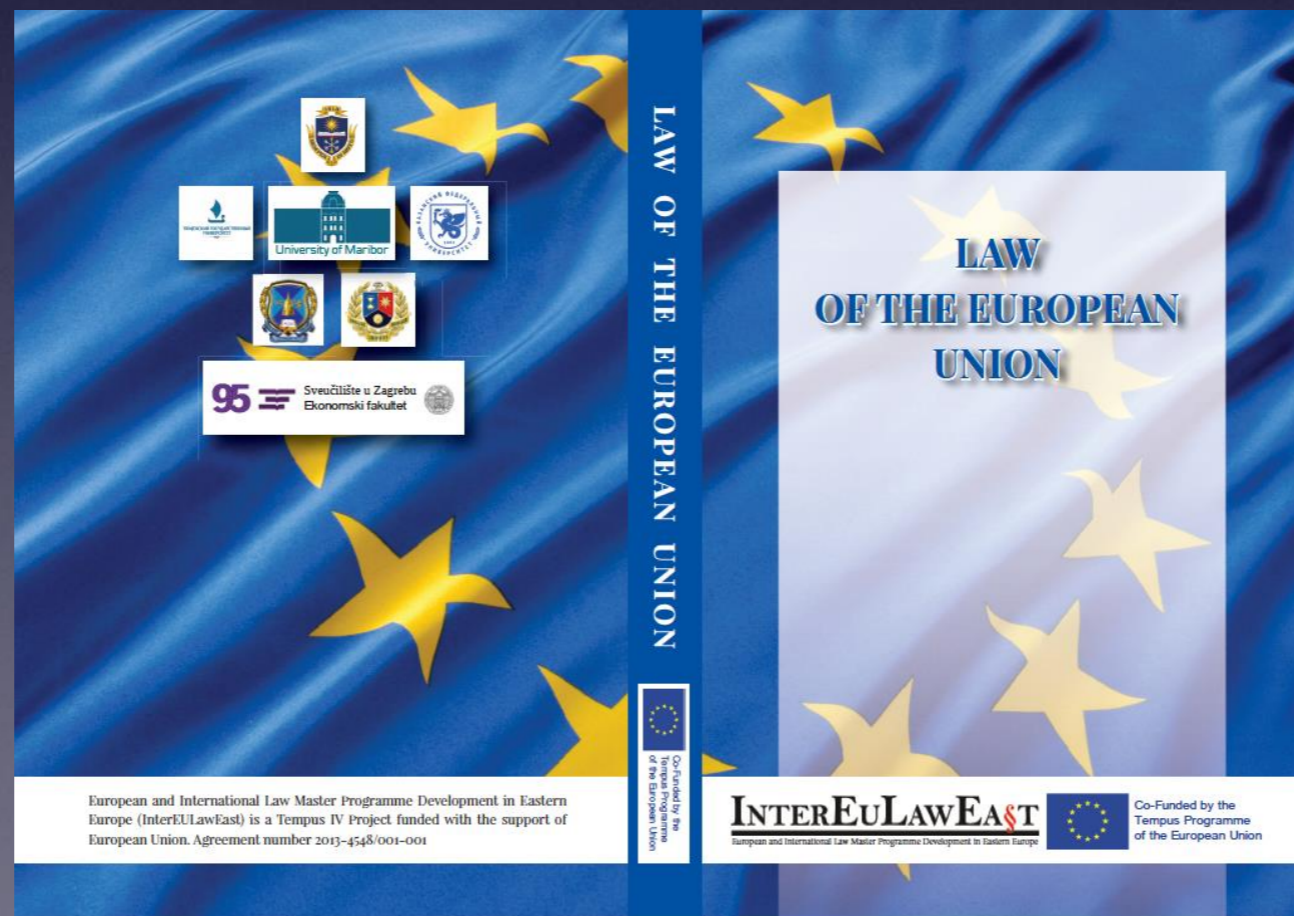

- Reviewers:
 - Hana Horak, Professor at the Faculty of Economics and Business, University of Zagreb; Head of Department of Law
 - Rajko Knez, Professor at the Faculty of Law, University of Maribor
- All recommendations from the reviewers were taken into account. The editors made relevant corrections.

Dissemination

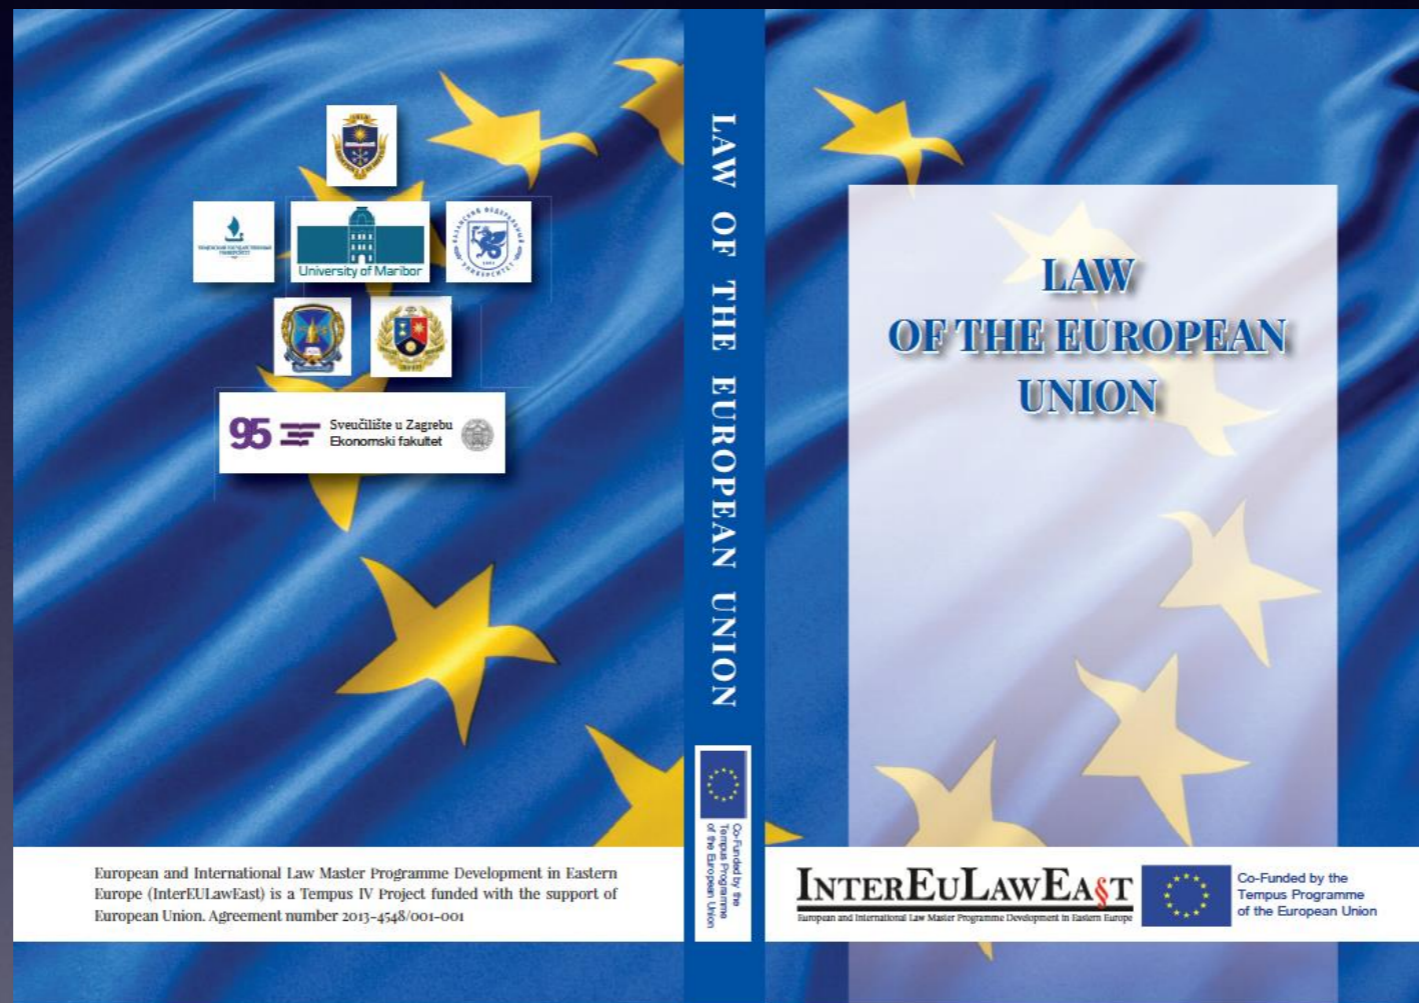

- The textbook is now available in e-version and placed at the web-page of the VSU Tempus Centre:

http://www.intlawvsu.ru/wp-content/uploads/2016/07/EU_Law_text.pdf

- The textbook can be freely downloaded by students, specialists and wider public.
- A printed version will be published before the next academic year by September 1st.

Thank you!

Воронежский
государственный
университет

INTEREU LAW EAST

European and International Law Master Programme Development in Eastern Europe

Co-funded by the Tempus Programme of the European Union